Confirmation 2019: Summons to Discipleship

August 6, 2018

Dear Confirmation Families,

I am happy to welcome you and your children to our Confirmation preparation process entitled: Confirmation: Summons to Discipleship. The goal of the program is to insure that each candidate is well prepared to receive the sacrament by providing opportunities for prayerful discernment and spiritual growth. The candidate must be ready, by his or her own faith conviction, to enter into this sacramental encounter with the Lord. During the Confirmation Mass when the bishop asks our candidates to profess their desire to become more fully initiated into the community of believers, it is our hope that they will be fully prepared to boldly answer, "I do!"

The requirements of this process are comprised of several key areas that include: catechetical sessions, prayer and retreats, stewardship activities, and youth ministry. In addition, all candidates are required to have an interview before beginning the preparation process. Prior to their interview the candidate must write a brief letter explaining why they are asking to be confirmed, and review and sign the Candidate Agreement (parents should also review and sign agreement). They must also choose a sponsor, who must be a fully initiated catholic who is at least sixteen years old. A parent may not serve as their child's sponsor.

The following is provided for your information/attention: Calendar of class dates and required events; Candidate Agreement, Candidate Letter, and Sponsor Form. Forms can be mailed, dropped off in the Devine Center, or faxed to 973-379-5356. Candidate interviews will begin in late August and run through September and we will be sending a Sign-Up Genius link soon with available dates.

Throughout the school year we will communicate primarily through email (emails are sent to the family email indicated on the registration form), so please check to ensure that St. Rose group emails do not end up in your spam folder. This year we will also utilize our parish system Realm (more on that to follow).

In the meantime if you have any questions do not hesitate to contact me by email at tricciardi@stroseshorhills.org, or by phone at 973-376-1960, x3503. At this time I am also pleased to introduce the newest member of our Adolescent Faith Formation team, Regina Furlan, who has been a long-time parishioner, cantor, volunteer, and Confirmation catechist. Regina will be replacing Patty Nascone who served faithfully for the past 9 years. We wish Patty well in her new position at Seton Hall Prep, and welcome Regina. We both look forward to a wonderful year journeying with our candidates for Confirmation.

Sincerely yours In Christ,
Tracy Ricciardi

ROLE OF SPONSORS

A sponsor can make an enormous difference in the preparation of a candidate for the Sacrament of Confirmation. It is important, therefore, that the candidates are encouraged to choose sponsors who are well suited to the role and who will be integral to the preparation process.

The Church's tradition of involving a sponsor in the preparation of candidates for the Sacraments of Christian Initiation is one of our most ancient approaches to faith formation. In the early centuries, when the catechumenate was the entry point for anyone seeking to become a Christian, the sponsor played an extremely vital role.

The sponsor was a living witness and mentor who represented the Christian community (its values, beliefs, behaviors, and so on) to the catechumen. The sponsor would, in turn, witness to the community on behalf of the catechumen's readiness for the initiatory sacraments.

The role of a sponsor was not over with the celebration of the sacraments, however. It was seen as a lifetime commitment, a relationship that would last throughout the individual's journey of faith.

In the early Church the three Sacraments of Christian Initiation were always celebrated at one time; therefore, there was never a different sponsor at Baptism and Confirmation. In subsequent centuries, however, with the separation of Confirmation from Baptism, it became more common to have different persons act as sponsor for those two sacraments.

Both the Code of Canon Law (Canon 893.2) and the introduction to the Rite of Confirmation (5) suggest that in view of contemporary pastoral circumstances, it is desirable to have one's baptismal sponsor act as sponsor at Confirmation. While this remains the ideal, it seems much more important that the sponsor chosen be available and involved with the candidate in a significant way, and be able to offer an authentic example of lived Christian faith.

As a bare minimum, the Code of Canon Law specifies that the requirements for acting as a sponsor at Confirmation (Canon 893) are the same as those for godparents at Baptism (Canon 874). Briefly, that canon directs that the person must have completed their sixteenth year, be fully initiated, live a life of faith, not be the parent, and not be bound by any other canonical restrictions.

One of the challenges that might exist occurs when sponsors live at a distance and cannot interact in person with their candidate. However, in this day of instantaneous Internet and cell phone communication, only a little extra effort is required to maintain regular contact between sponsor and candidate. It is important that interaction occurs on a consistent basis and that sponsors are informed. We encourage our candidates to choose their sponsor at the beginning of the preparation process so that they may be a part of their formation.
