The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be “schools of discipleship” assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ’s love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ’s saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

Happy Falther's Day

Empowered to Receive Love

The Spirit reveals to us not only that God is “Abba”, Father” but also that we belong to God as his beloved children. The Spirit thus restores in us the relationship from which all other relationships derive their meaning.

Abba is a very intimate word. The best translation for it is: “Daddy”. The word Abba expresses trust, safety, confidence, belonging, and most of all intimacy. It does not have the connotation of authority, power, and control that the word Father often evokes. On the contrary, Abba implies an embracing and nurturing love. This love includes and infinitely transcends all the love that comes to us from our fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters, spouses and lovers. It is the gift of the Spirit.

- Henri Nouwen

“Fathers are so necessary as examples and guides for our children in wisdom and virtue.”

- Pope Francis

The Church, our mother, is committed to supporting with all her strength the good and generous presence of fathers in families, for they are the irreplaceable guardians and mediators of faith in goodness, of faith in justice and in God's protection, like St. Joseph.

—Pope Francis, General Audience, February 4, 2015

A Father's Day Prayer

God our Father,

In your wisdom and love you made all things.

Bless those fathers who have taken upon themselves the responsibility of parenting.

Bless those who have lost a spouse to death, separation, or divorce, and who are parenting their children alone.

Strengthen all Dads by your love that they may become the loving, caring persons they are meant to be.

Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

From: Pierre Toussaint Food Pantry

Dear Members of the 2024 Confirmation Group,

It was a wonderful faith experience to be present at St. Rose Church when you celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation. It was a joyous and spirit filled celebration of all that you studied, prayed, discussed and pondered during your preparation time.

The highlight for me came with your incredible food gift at the Offertory Procession for the Pierre Toussaint Food Pantry. It was such a concrete and tangible response to the great food insecurity of our time, an issue that I know you came to understand in greater depth during your preparation time. I thought of all the times that Sister Sandy raised that issue with you, deepening your sensitivity to the fear and suffering of so many families right here in our own state and our own local community. It is truly a way to put your faith into action.

Going forward I hope that all that this day was will hold a significant place in your spiritual journey. I pray that you will never lose that great sensitive to the needs and sufferings of others and the awareness that you can do something to respond!

Thank you for all your support of those who come to our Pierre Toussaint Food Pantry here in Newark. They are grateful for your care and compassion.

May your faith continue to grow strong and bold and sustain you into the future years ahead.

God bless you and all your families,

Sister Linda Klaiss

Our Sunday Obligation

“Much obliged” is an old fashioned phrase first noted in the Old Oxford English Dictionary in the sixteenth century. Over the centuries, the phrase has lost some of its richness. Originally, it meant to be bound to a person by ties of gratitude. Today, the phrase is more often used as an automatic response to someone who has performed a perfunctory service. Unfortunately, this practice does not convey the sense of truly being bound to each other by gratitude. What a loss! Because of that loss, many people understand the word obligation as a burden rather than a commitment and duty that flows from a relationship. Obligation is a form of indebtedness that comes from within the heart of a relationship. Think of the obligations that make for a rich family life. A parent does not say, “I wonder if I have to feed my children this week?” Husbands and wives carry out a myriad of obligatory tasks in service to each other during the course of a week and never ask, “Do I have to?” In loving relationships, we are grateful for the gift of each other and we express that gratitude by doing right actions because we want to do so. Obligatory behaviors grow out of communication, intimacy, and personal and communal relationships. These examples can help us reflect on our “obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2041).

The heart of Sunday obligation is gratitude. The word Eucharist means “to give thanks.” We gather each week because we are “much obliged” to God — for everything. This obligation is not an automatic response to someone who has performed a perfunctory service. We come together to “give thanks” to God, our Father who is the source of all life and creation, and to Jesus, God’s Son who gave us eternal life through his death on the Cross that is made present in every Mass as we participate again in Christ’s death and Resurrection through the Eucharist.

Each time we “attend Mass,” we bring our lives, our very selves, to the Eucharist. We gather together as a community, grateful to have each other as fellow pilgrims in faith and grateful to be nourished by the body and blood of Christ. Just as the relationships and obligations in families are nurtured and strengthened by intimacy and communion, so too does our participation in the Eucharist nurture and strengthen our relationship with the Trinity. Food nourishes our body in the same way that our participation in Holy Communion nourishes our spirit and unites us together as individuals and as a community in Christ. Acting on our Sunday obligation of being “much obliged” gives us reason to be “more obliged” in the most authentic sense of obligation. - Maureen A. Kelly

Question for Reflection

- In what ways do I live out my Sunday obligation?
What impact does my participation in the Eucharist have on my daily life?
- Where will I fulfill my Sunday obligation to attend Mass this summer?
