

We welcome back

Bishop Ricardo Ramirez

speaking on

What the Church Says About Immigration

October 3, 2017 - 7:00 PM in Ryan Hall

Bishop Ramirez will focus on church teaching about immigration and the need to care for those in crisis because of war, economics or safety.

He will use example from his own life and experience chronicled in his new book,

Power from the Margins,

a history and analysis of the role of Hispanics and Immigrants in American society and in the Catholic Church.

Bishop Ramirez brings his personal experience and love of all the people he has served over 50 years in ministry.

He will also do a book signing after his presentation.
