

Join us for a two-parish community collaboration that will shine a light on the realities of modern day slavery in our backyards.

Human Trafficking: Modern Day Slavery

Film Screening with Panel Discussion

Tuesday, November 7, 2017

7:00pm-8:30pm

Christ Church Parish Hall
66 Highland Avenue
Short Hills

Screening of “Chosen” A 20-minute film by Shared Hope that tells the shocking true story of two “all-American” teenagers deceived into sex trafficking

Panel of Experts:

Sr. Lena Picillo OP - Caldwell Dominican Sister

Susan Panzica - NJCAHT Board & Ambassador of Hope, Shared Hope

Kate Lee - NJCAHT Administrator

PLUS: “Fair Trade” coffee & chocolate treats
Exhibit tables about how to take local action

Register to attend at: www.njhumantrafficking.org

This event is free to attend, but please consider helping human trafficking survivors in New Jersey by bringing along $10 denomination gift cards to provide essential clothing or a warm meal or drink. Gift cards for Target, Walmart, Burger King, Dunkin donuts and Starbucks are especially appreciated. These will be distributed by the Dreamcatchers program and Hoving Home to the survivors they assist daily.

For more information please contact:

Christ Church: Carrie Cabush (973) 379-2898 or ccabush@christchurchshorthills.org

St Rose of Lima: Sr. Donna Ciangio (973) 376-1960 x 3501 or srdonna@stroseshorthills.org