ASSISTANCE TO OTHERS

Interfaith Hospitality Network of Essex County

The IHN of Essex County helps homeless families who are in need of shelter. Families are provided a place to stay and three meals a day by housing them at a network of churches and synagogues. While in the shelter network, IHN works with each family to develop a plan that addresses the issues that led to their homelessness. Goals are set and parents are compassionately guided to take the steps necessary to find a home and become self-sufficient.

Volunteers will assemble care packages to be used by children and families during the summer.
